

NATIONAL SEMINAR ON

“Co-ordination and Quality Control in Distance Education”

You will be delighted to learn that we are celebrating Diamond Jubilee year of Gandhi Vidya Mandir, the parent body of IASE Deemed University established on October 2, 1950.

In this sequence a National seminar on “Co-ordination and Quality Control in Distance Education” is being organized from 20th to 21st February 2010, at our main campus in Sardarshahr (Rajasthan).

It is about finding out effective ways and means to improve the quality of distance education. Needless to say that support services, the backbone of all Distance Education Programmes remains weak most often. Eminent academicians and representatives of various Universities from all parts of the country will be participating in this seminar.
